

Buried In Treasures Facilitator Training!

Training Provided by Miley Stanton-Flowers and Jill Williams, M.A. from the Multnomah County Hoarding Task Force

Buried In Treasures is a 16-week evidence based skill building workshop based on the principles of Cognitive Behavioral Therapy. Each session is 2 hours long and contains a number of activities/discussions to aid participants in overcoming the struggles associated with hoarding disorder and excessive clutter. Groups are generally comprised of 10-12 participants and 2 facilitators. Come get trained in the curriculum so that you can feel ready to run groups at your agency or in your community.
