

These services include leadership and advocacy on aging issues, community outreach, coordination of services for older adults, educational and recreational activities and reassurance for older adults. Providers leverage finite resources through partnerships, volunteers, and donations. This also includes volunteer services to support older adult programming.

Cultural events for celebration, education, and community-preservation

Social activities like movie nights, games, and fairs

Services to address isolation and risk

Educational and supportive events to teach new skills, foster connections, and empower people

Reporting Required:

Number of events

Type of events

Guest count for each event

Estimated unduplicated monthly participant count

Planning, coordination and logistics

Monthly allocation based on negotiated contract for Enhancing Equity partners

Monthly allocation for District Senior Centers not to exceed 20% of contract award

Community Focal Point for Older Adults