Overview

Passed by voters in November 2020, Preschool for All will provide access to high-quality, culturally responsive early learning with in-home providers, school districts, Head Starts, and center-based preschools in Multnomah County, with a focus on equity and inclusion.

The first Preschool for All slots will begin in September 2022.

Program Information

There are two ways for providers to participate: the Pathways Program and Pilot Sites.

Session Focus

This session will focus on Pilot Sites. We will share information and answer questions.

Interpretation

Spanish interpretation will be available. Please email preschoolforall@multco.us if you need interpretation in additional languages.
