Executive Summary

The Violation Hearings unit is instrumental in holding justice-involved individuals (JIIs) accountable by providing fair and objective investigations and probation/post-prison hearings, incarceration when appropriate and actively supervising justice-involved individuals. Through collaboration with the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office, the Oregon State Board of Parole, DA's Office, Defense Bar, treatment providers, and the community, this unit provides effective interventions and helps to ensure necessary due process and efficient operations of the local justice system.

Program Summary

Centralizing the hearings/violation processes helps to ensure timely and equitable resolutions. If during supervision, a Parole-Probation Officer (PPO) determines that a justice-involved individual has violated their conditions of supervision, the PPO submits required written documents and a violation hearing is arranged through the Violations Hearings unit. This unit consists of 3 types of hearings or processes:

 Hearings Officers (HO) conduct local parole/post-prison hearings and determine consequences for the adults found in violation of supervision. HOs are able to order jail releases, recommend revocations of adults and/or make other recommendations that are consistent with evidence-based practices. In addition, the unit provides support within the Justice Center for the purposes of testimony and streamlining DCJ representation on probation violation matters before the court.
A centralized PPO covers many Court Probation Violation hearings that are conducted in the Multnomah County Justice Center.

3. A centralized PPO that conducts all in-custody administrative sanctions within the custody setting that are under 30 days and not contested.

Measure 1: In FY 2022, due to the COVID-19 pandemic procedural changes were made for JIIs which resulted in fewer arrests and sanctions. These changes had a direct impact on the Hearings Officer's workload. Less JIIs in custody for PPS/Parole violations equated to fewer hearings.
