Executive Summary

Juvenile Field Probation (JFP) services are divided into specialized units designed to address the unique needs of each youth population. Specialized units serve youth involved in serious person felonies, gangs, sexual offenses, weapon related charges, and victims of commercial sexual exploitation (CSEC). Juvenile Field Probation holds youth accountable through specialized supervision and sanctions, restorative opportunities, skill building, mentoring, and positive developmentally appropriate activities.

Program Summary

Juvenile Court Counselors (JCC) develop probation case plans, enforce court ordered conditions, and address victim restitution and restoration. In addition to holding youth accountable for repairing harm, JCC's coordinate treatment (e.g. mental health and substance abuse) and interventions designed to address and prevent further delinquent behavior. Skill building, mentoring, educational advocacy, and the incorporation of pro-social developmentally-appropriate activities are all used to counteract gang involvement, sexual offending, and other harmful behaviors leading to further involvement in the justice system. JFP focuses on the highest risk youth by utilizing Functional Family Probation Services (FFPS), an evidence-based case management model that has proven results in reducing recidivism and promoting accountability and positive youth development among justice-involved youth. Probation's use of FFPS increases family participation in the youth's supervision and treatment, and youth have increased success on supervision when family members are actively participating. JCCs refer youth to interventions including intensive family based counseling, specialized youth treatment, culturally appropriate services, job readiness and employment opportunities, positive peer influences, and community support systems.

JCCs are an integral member of the Community Healing Initiative (CHI), which uses an interdisciplinary, culturally specific approach to develop and implement plans for positive youth development, family support and community protection. JCCs also collaborate with police, adult Parole-Probation Officers and the community to gather intelligence that helps with intervention when delinquent behavior is present.

County General Fund plus two two-year intergovernmental agreement (IGA) 7/1/2021-06/30/2023 with Oregon Youth Authority (OYA).

1st IGA, Juvenile Crime Prevention Diversion Services. FY 2023 budget is 51% allocation for the 2nd year of the IGA plus approximately $700 of an estimated unspent balance of County adopted FY2022 Budget. Funding breaks down into:

- 1) $357,097 provides treatment services for substance abuse and mental health.
- 2) $312,463 provides treatment services for female youths with a Class A misdemeanor and/or a more serious act of delinquency.
- 3) $157,638 provides juvenile sex supervision and treatment services.
