What Does the Behavioral Health and Suicide Prevention team Do?

Using trauma informed, collaborative, culturally responsive, and creative tools, our program provides an array of suicide and behavioral health prevention and postvention services. Our primary ways of supporting the community include technical assistance, consultation, training, and program development. From our GetTrainedToHelp.com community training website, to supporting community responses to suicide and violence, our program engages with community through organization support and prevention education for all.

Internship Description & Responsibilities:

- Support our Youth Suicide Prevention Coalition through activities and outreach
- Learn and provide support for suicide and behavioral health prevention training in the community.
- Explore suicide and behavioral health prevention and postvention through shadowing team members

- Identify and explore avenues for youth engagement, creating a plan for onboarding youth to the coalition
- Participate in general outreach events and research opportunities for community event engagement

Learning Outcomes:

- A broad understanding of suicide prevention strategies and impacts on community.
- Skills to build coalitions across communities and organizations
- Knowledge of evidence based and culturally response suicide intervention strategies along with multiple course certificates.
- Increased ability to advocate for practices that bring hope and healing to diverse communities.

Education and Minimum Qualifications:

- Candidates should have completed or enrolled in a college/university academic institution.
- Promote a culture of respect, inclusiveness, and appreciation of diverse perspectives, backgrounds, and values (Link to Equity and Empowerment Lens)
- Ability to listen to accounts of death/suicide/violence and ask for support as needed
- Basic data entry and documentation skills

Workforce Equity:

Our Commitment to Safety, Trust and Belonging: Multnomah County is committed to developing, nurturing and continually improving workforce equity by identifying and addressing the structural and policy barriers to equal employment opportunity faced by our employees and communities. Learn more by reading our Workforce Equity Strategic Plan and exploring our Core Competencies for all County employees.

COVID-19 Vaccination Requirement: To protect the health of the community and employees, Multnomah County requires employees to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 or have an approved medical or religious exception as a qualification of employment.

The rule applies to all employees, as allowable by law. Candidates who receive an offer of County employment must provide proof of vaccination upon hire or submit an exception request prior to their start date.
