Executive Summary

The Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC) provides contract services to Multnomah County and its residents. Formerly a county bureau (the Metropolitan Arts Commission), RACC became an independent 501(c)(3) organization in 1995 in order to leverage support from other regional government partners and private donors, ultimately investing much more in arts and culture than the County alone can afford. These investments create vibrant neighborhoods, enhance our children's education, and fuel the creative economy with measurable economic benefits for Multnomah County.

Program Summary

RACC plays a vital role in the county's economic and community development efforts. Specifically, RACC provides services in five key areas: (1) Through Advocacy, RACC helps build support and resource for arts and culture. (2) RACC Grants provide artists and arts organizations with the base financial support they need to continue serving our community. (3) RACC's nationally acclaimed Public Art program, including the Multnomah County 2% for Art Ordinance, integrates a wide range of art into public spaces. (4) RACC provides other Community Services including workshops for artists, consulting for arts organizations, and a variety of printed and electronic resources; (5) RACC is developing comprehensive Arts Education solutions for our community; and (6) RACC will continue to support arts programs that work within Multnomah County's system of care for vulnerable populations, particularly those for people experiencing homelessness.

Arts and culture activities add measurable value to our region's economy and to our guality of life. Artists and arts organizations bring residents together for shared cultural experiences that stimulate creativity which in turn supports more innovative businesses and a richer educational experience for our children. A vibrant arts community serves as a magnet for young creatives, and Multnomah County's investment in the arts contributes to the competitive advantage we have over other regions competing to attract sustainable businesses and an innovative, well-educated workforce. Multnomah County is home to the vast majority of the region's artists and arts and culture organizations, which together generate more than $253.5 million for the local economy and $21 million for state and local coffers every year.

Proposed program allocations for FY 2017 County dollars include allotments to the following RACC programs: Advocacy and Development (including Work for Art), $12,000; Grants, $107,700; Technical Assistance, $5,200; Arts Education (including The Right Brain Initiative), $31,275; Management/General (including outreach to under served communities), $14,507 and $129,318 in additional administration, grants and projects that serve vulnerable populations (as described by (6) above).
