Optional Information

A Purpose, A Plan, A Passion for All People

I am here today because I am concerned about tomorrow. I am concerned about our our elderly, our children, their future, and their education; I am concerned about affordable housing and hung down heads with no place to call home, in a shining county with places and spaces where the glitter of the budgets do not glow. I am here today to halt the course of leadership from transitioning unhealthy behaviors into our tomorrow.

Protecting Our Yesterday -Today - Tomorrow : The Elderly

Reaffirm their Unalienable Rights –Life, Liberty, Pursuit of Happiness
Personalize emergency preparedness strategies for the elderly living alone
Improve the quality of life, safety and security, and health needs.

Our Children Our Future

Reached across urban, suburban, and rural Oregon schools with plans to alter the course of chronic absenteeism and evaporating dreams of education.

Affordable Housing and the Houseless Crisis

Supported measures for affordable housing; reviewed models of other state's success. Identified and communicated the positives to the no's in my neighborhood.

Foster an environment of equity, inclusion and cultural engagements

I have lived in Oregon over 30 years, supporting communities, serving as a missionary within and outside of my faith base, and providing an unconditional commitment of service for Oregonians from diverse socio-economic origins navigating them through complex government programs. As your County Chair, my unconditional commitment to budget management, programs, crisis, and respect for people from all walks of life will overflow.
