EFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP FOR PORTLAND'S FUTURE

"I've seen her work on committees and found Felicia to be smart, tough, open minded, and fair. That's exactly what I'm looking for on City Council."

Judith Gray, Transportation Planner

"Felicia is the most innovative and exciting political newcomer I've seen. She has the right combination of compassion and strength. Give her a chance and you'll be impressed."

Theresa Kohlhoff, Portland Business Owner and Lake Oswego City Council Member

- Homelessness: Felicia balances compassion with common sense. We need to end the replication of services, fill in the existing service gaps, and provide health and addiction treatment to break the cycle of homelessness.
- Everyone has a right to feel safe in Portland. Felicia is a champion for public safety and livability.
- The best way to survive an earthquake is to prepare for it. It is also critical to have calm, experienced leadership guiding our response.
- Housing is a basic human need. We can create more affordable housing by developing underutilized city-owned land, while at the same time retaining land ownership as a long-term public asset.

Community Service: President, Downtown Neighborhood Association; President, Neighbors West-Northwest Neighborhood Coalition Board of Directors; South of Market EcoDistrict Board of Directors; Downtown Public Safety and Land Use Transportation Subcommittees; Ortiz Center After School Program Tutor; Organizer, Westside Emergency Preparedness Fair; Founder, PDX Civil Rights Project.
