Executive Summary

MCSO Corrections Counselors provide services to pretrial and sentenced adults in custody to enhance a safe and secure environment and to ensure compliance with statutory mandates. Counselor services include, but are not limited to: assessment, case management, transition services, individual counseling, group programming, education, mental health, and re-entry services (through linkage with alcohol/drug, mental health, housing, employment, and other providers in the community).

Program Summary

The Programs Unit strives to provide programs and services to adults in custody that will assist in increasing opportunities to become productive members of the community. Corrections Counselors provide services to stabilize, effectively manage. and positively impact pretrial and sentenced adults in custody. These services satisfy constitutional and statutory requirements, as well as assist with their progression through the jail (most secure to least secure housing) and successful re-entry into the community.

Corrections Counselors assess needs and risk, placing those appropriate into work crews or community beds that address alcohol/drug, housing, mental health, and other chronic needs. Counselors provide group programming, resource information and referral service, which by the development of community partnerships, link sentenced offenders to various community services to assist them in addressing their needs and issues.

Counselors serve as liaisons between the jail staff and adults in custody (i.e. security, medical, records, auxiliary services, etc.) as well as, outside entities such as family, employers, attorneys, probation/parole officers, the Court, and various social service providers. Counselors engage in individual counseling with adults in custody to reduce the level of anxiety typical to those confined and to provide them with skills to successfully manage their behavior, thereby diffusing escalating behavior, especially for those suffering from serious mental health related concerns.

The Programs Unit not only provides exceptional service to the community by enhancing opportunity for successful re-entry, they assist in providing a safe housing environment for those confined and maximize the efficient, effective, and fiscally responsible use of jail beds.
