Program Characteristics: In Target

Executive Summary

This program offer is for the Fairview-Columbia, Gresham, Midland, Rockwood and Troutdale libraries. Last year, people visited these libraries more than 558,000 times and benefited from diverse learning, cultural and recreational opportunities. These libraries serve the most culturally and ethnically diverse part of the county, as well as the area with the highest concentration of poverty.

Program Summary

East County libraries are community hubs where people attend classes, programs, and community forums. These libraries provide access seven days per week, including some evenings, to 339,000 books and other items including Spanish and Russian materials, and a growing Black Resources Collection. Rockwood has the system's only makerspace, a collaborative learning environment that provides access to technology, equipment, software and supportive mentors. County residents learn real-life technology, design and engineering skills through open labs, workshops and camps. Rockwood, Midland and Gresham libraries served more than 3,500 summer lunches, which is critical, as these communities have 15-30% of residents living in poverty.

Library users develop critical life skills through job training resources, book groups, opportunities for civic engagement and other programs. East County libraries' language learning and educational programs improve employment opportunities and quality of life for those with low English proficiency and limited resources.

Community groups used the meeting rooms 956 times. East County libraries provide 892 bilingual programs and events each year. Libraries provide opportunities and resources for lifelong learning by providing free access to computers and high-speed wireless internet. East County libraries provide 419,000 internet and wi-fi sessions annually including on 269 library-provided public computers. Library users developed life and job skills at 434 free computer classes and labs. More than 27,000 children and young people participate in programming including storytimes, Summer Reading, and after school activities in these libraries.

East County Libraries will continue to evaluate staffing to ensure that staff members have the language and cultural skills to serve the communities surrounding these libraries by aligning staff with current demographic community information.

Legal / Contractual Obligation

The budget reflects the passage of Measure 26-143: "Form Library District with permanent rate to fund library services," November 2012 General Election. The district summary states in pertinent part: "If approved, the Multnomah County Library District would be formed with a permanent rate dedicated to library services, operations, books, materials, programs, activities and oversight of the district. Formation of a District would ... prevent reductions in services, programs and activities, and hours."
