Executive Summary

Prosecutors must be leaders in ensuring that convictions are the result of fair and transparent processes consistent with the pursuit of justice. MCDA's Justice Integrity Unit will review and, when necessary and appropriate, seek to overturn convictions when there is evidence of actual innocence, prosecutor or law enforcement misconduct, or other considerations that undermine the integrity of the conviction. The criminal legal system has disproportionately impacted communities of color. Establishing a unit that looks to repair harm will likely have a positive impact on those same communities. This unit will work closely with defense attorneys and community groups to identify appropriate cases for this unit to consider.

Program Summary

More than 45 jurisdictions across the country have established Justice Integrity Units (JIUs) as a mechanism for scrutinizing past cases. MCDA's JIU will address all issues that arise after conviction and sentencing including, but not limited to, post conviction relief (PCR) hearings, Psychiatric Security Review Board (PSRB) Hearings, Parole Board Hearings, reviewing clemency petitions, and reviewing Ramos cases. The JIU will investigate claims of actual innocence, and instances where prosecutorial or law enforcement misconduct is alleged that is uncovered post-conviction. MCDA's JIU will be led by a Senior Deputy who is experienced in all levels of casework.

It will also be the role of this unit to ensure that MCDA is a leader in justice integrity in the state. To that end, the head of the JIU will maintain and update policies, protocols and materials related to: discovery obligations; eyewitness identification; recorded police interviews; ethics and professionalism; confidential informants; forensic evidence retention; proffers and cooperation agreements; and homicide file closing protocols.

Even as MCDA moves forward with better practices, building public trust in the criminal justice system requires addressing the past harm that has been perpetrated by the criminal legal system. MCDA acknowledges that harm has fallen disparately on communities of color. Therefore, the intention and expectation of establishing the JIU is that MCDA will address disparity in the criminal legal system. JIU will track the demographic information related to cases that it works on in order to measure that impact, and to ensure that this unit does not increase disparities that already exist.

This program offer was developed coordination with national technical assistance provider Fair and Just Prosecution, who supplied MCDA with best practices and materials from well established-JIUs around the country.

Significant Program Changes

Last Year this program was:

This is a new program offer. Some of the work that the JIU will undertake is currently dispersed throughout the office, but lacks intentional leadership and priority. Consolidating work into one unit will improve quality and consistency and increase MCDA's ability to engage with community and legal service providers through a single point of contact. Attorneys, victims advocates and other MCDA will be engaged by JIU staff with knowledge about particular cases on a more limited basis.
